Park Dist. To Study New Land Purchases

Special Meeting Set Wednesday; Citizens' Committee to Attend

A program of land acquisition for future park development in the Granite City park district is to be discussed in a special meeting of the park board at noon next Wednesday, it was announced in a regular meeting last night.

The meeting will be held in the park district offices at Wilson Park, and board officials said they plan to invite representatives of the steering committee of the citizens' group that spearheaded the ice rink bond issue several years ago. Several Quad-City area realtors also will be asked to attend the meeting.

Some groundwork for land acquisition has been laid during the past few months, but any definite program of purchasing still must be formulated, park officials said.

At the same time, the board last night reported that an ordinance will be adopted, probably in its next regular meeting Nov. 27, extending the district's boundaries to encompass the Reilly Tract & Chemical Corp. on Edwardsville road which was annexed earlier this year to Granite City.

Requested Annexation

The firm, formerly located in Nankin township, requested annexation to the city. Park officials said the district's boundaries will be extended co-extensive with those of the city.

The board received two bids for installation of gas furnace equipment in the park district offices and garage at Wilson Park, and awarded the contract to Triangle Heating Co. on an offer of $1983. The other bid of $2106 was submitted by Tri-City Heating Co.

Board members authorized purchase of an ice-making machine from Pepsi-Cola Co. for the concession stand at the ice rink.

The machine has been in use on a rental basis and purchase was authorized with provision that rentals paid on the machine will apply toward the purchase price. The machine will cost the district $806. Its original cost was $1335.

Revise Lighting System

Completion of work on a revised lighting system at the Delmar entrance to Wilson Park, involving removal of two of the four wooden utility poles previously located there, was reported to the board.

Two remaining poles will be replaced with decorative concrete units.

Scholarship Fund Honors 'Curly' Harris

The people and officials of the Quad-Cities, the district and the state paid tribute Monday night to State Rep. Lloyd "Curly" Harris of Granite City for his long career of public service in the Illinois legislature — from which he will retire this year.

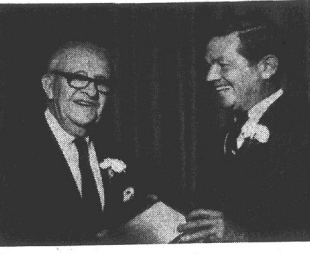

Civic and public officials expressed their gratitude for his many years of service to this area in brief comments, by the award of plaques and by presentation of gifts.

But the crowning token of honor was announcement of the creation of a $1500 scholarship fund to be known as the "Lloyd 'Curly' Harris Foundation" at Southern Illinois University—Southwestern campus, which Representative Harris helped build through legislation and appropriations he introduced and steered through the Illinois assembly.

300 Attend Event

Rep. Harris was guest of honor at a testimonial program conducted in conjunction with the 28th annual dinner meeting of the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce. Approximately 300 persons attended the event in the Meridian Room of the Student Center at SIU-SW.

Tribute to the honor guest followed installation of new

Daylight Savings Time Ends Sunday

Daylight Savings Time ends at 2 a.m. Sunday when clocks will be turned back one hour.

It will mean an extra hour of sleep for most residents who will make up the hour lost when D. S. T. started for the summer on the last Sunday of April. The sun will rise and set one hour earlier.

Expect Record Registration of 120,000 Voters

An all-time record of nearly 120,000 Madison county voters will be eligible to cast ballots in the Nov. 5 general election, the Nov. 5 election officials announced today.

Miss Hotz said the figure still is unofficial pending final cross-checks on new registrations and record changes, but that she is certain the registration figure will approximate that total.

The estimated 120,000 registrations is an increase from 115,704 voters registered for the June 11 primary election, this year, and is up more than 7000 over the 112,688 voters registered for the November general election in 1966.

Registration figures for the Quad-City area will be available early next week, Miss Hotz said.

May Vote Absentee

Miss Hotz said that registered voters who are, or will be, physically incapacitated on election day and unable to go to the polls, should write or phone her before the election to request a ballot to vote an absentee ballot.

The application and a physician's affidavit must each be notarized, and returned to the county clerk's office not later than Oct. 31. Ballots then will be mailed to voters.

Any voter who knows he or she will be hospitalized on Nov. 5 may vote in person at the county clerk's office until noon on Saturday, Nov. 2. Medical contracts in both labor disputes are being held in the U. S. Mediation offices in St. Louis.

Pasched Picked Line

To resume work on furnace repairs at the blast plant, crafts workers were required to pass a one-man picket line and strike notice posted at the construction workers gate along Highway 162. There were no incidents.

About 100 workers are engaged in the relining work, including bricklayers, iron workers, welders and laborers.

First entry into the plant by the union workers since early October was decided upon, union sources said, because of the threat of a secondary boycott.

2200 Soldiers To Train at Depot This Weekend

Convoys of Army vehicles with 2200 soldiers will be rolling into Granite City from several directions on Saturday with the Granite City Army Depot as the destination.

The 303rd Reserve Provisional Brigade, headquartered in Springfield, will be in tactical training at the Depot on Saturday and Sunday. The brigade is made up of reserve units from Illinois, Iowa and Missouri.

The exercise is being conducted for the soldiers to gain experience in troop movement from home stations to a military post as well as experience in control, administration, messing and billeting.

Revolvers, under the command of Col. John H. Wilson, will pitch tents in the south area of the Depot. They will depart on Sunday.

Allen was instructed to have the ward restricting ordinance ready for adoption at next Monday night's session, calling upon Assistant Atty. Harry Hartman, if needed.

Circuit Judge I. H. Streeter III has ordered the city to be restricted from eight to seven wards by Nov. 5. Alderman Robertson said a possible technicality could arise if the council waited until the Nov. 4 meeting to adopt the redistricting ordinance which was authorized at the Oct. 7 meeting.

In discussing the proposed election for reduction of the council size, the aldermen again criticized the petitions, with Boyd saying the council had been advised of the five-day limitation to challenge signatures.

Boyd said he would oppose the reduction. "People need ample representation, and while they have read a lot about confusion on the council, there are those who have lived here only a short time who shouldn't judge what's going on up here by attending only a few council sessions."

"I believe we can save money with the next budget," Boyd continued. "I will openly oppose this reduction of representation. One alderman would have a tough time representing 5000 or more people. By holding this election on Nov. 5, we are giving the city for Granite City to become better informed on the matter."

Opposition to the proposal also was voiced by Alderman Green, who said most of the persons in his ward who signed the petitions were new residents. "I think it's fair to say that $15,000 in alderman salaries are being saved."

Nonn, who made the motion for an April vote on the issue, said that a smaller council would be controlled more easily. "All you would need a majority is four; I think we have an active council, and that's the way it should be."

Nonn May Run Again

Nonn said that even though he had announced in May when he was honored for 25 years on the council that it was his last term, "I may run again. I have a right to change my mind. I have a right to change my mind."

Basarich remarked that residents of East St. Louis are trying to return to the alderman form of government for better representation on the council.

City Also Preparing For Primary Feb. 11; Ward Remap in Week

Granite City council members voted unanimously Monday night to schedule a special vote with next April's regular city election on the proposal to reduce the size of the city council from two aldermen for each ward to one alderman.

An election-minded alderman also approved a request from City Clerk Herman "Cal" Pendleton for authorization to prepare for a city primary election next Feb. 11 in the event more than two candidates file for the office of mayor.

In other action, City Atty. Allen was instructed to have the ward restricting ordinance ready for adoption at next Monday night's session, calling upon Assistant Atty. Harry Hartman, if needed.

Goldfish, Flower Giveaways at Park

The annual fall goldfish and flower cutting give-aways at Wilson Park will be conducted this weekend, it was announced today by Harold Brown, park superintendent.

Interested persons are invited to be at the park's 27th street and Delmar avenue entrance at 8 a.m. Friday for the flower cuttings.

The hundreds of goldfish will be given away on Saturday at 8 a.m. with children to report to the 27th and Delmar entrance.

The youngsters are being asked to have a suitable container for two goldfish. The fish will be distributed at the building near the fountain. Types of flowers available will be marigolds, periwinkle, zinnia and geranium. No mums are included.

Frank Cantlon, 2304 Washington avenue, reported to Madison police at 7:30 p.m. yesterday that a house he owns at 802 Grand avenue, was broken into by burglars who took a portable television set. Entry was gained by removing a screen and breaking a window.

200 Students Boycott MHS

From 200 to 250 white students at Madison high school walked out of school during the lunch period today in protest over the election of a Negro girl as senior class president.

One student claimed the girl was not a candidate but was selected by acting Principal Richard Brown because of pressure from the Negro student body.

The student said four students were on the ballot, including two white and two Negro candidates, and that a white student had received the most votes.

Brown said the girl was on the ballot and a recount was held. He said the issue should be handled by the Student Council itself which is to meet Friday after school in the school cafeteria.

A dissenting student claimed Brown was asked for a recount last night but that the request was denied.

Scroggins and Griffith Stress Investigation Needs

A forum-type debate by state's attorney candidates — Leon Scroggins of Granite City, Democrat, and William Griffith, Republican, was held last night. Griffith, former Granite City and GOP contender from Alton—brought forth one of the law enforcement plans by both men Tuesday night.

The debate was held at the Montclair Bowl in Edwardsville under the sponsorship of the Lions Club of the city. In attendance were about 125 persons.

Both candidates were held to three-minute speaking periods. Griffith stressed the need for a more business-like operation of the office and said he would hire an investigator to work with police departments and to ferret out "white collar crimes" that are being investigated only by newspapers.

Scroggins replied that the need for additional funds to expand his investigative and regular staffs posed a problem during the two years in office. He added that he hoped the county board would provide those funds.

When Griffith criticized procedures in the present operation of the state's attorney's office, pointing out that faulty search warrants were being issued and that criminals were being caught in his reelection, Griffith replied that court records show he has prosecuted and won convictions in a majority of cases tried.

The Alton lawyer spoke at a rapid pace, consuming all of his three-minute periods. Scroggins, who was more leisurely and was deliberate in his presentations—not using the allotted three minutes at least once—said he would not use the state's attorney's post.

Scroggins pointed out he had introduced several new programs during his term—the use of polygraph tests for complainants, especially in sex cases, to avoid unnecessary proceedings,

Thomas Charges Campaign 'Lug' in Coroner's Race

A charge that incumbent Democratic Coroner Leonard R. Davis of Granite City was "lugging" his campaign assessments ranging as high as $1500 each against directors of Madison county's larger funeral homes who hold deputy coroner appointments, was injected this week into an increasingly embittered election contest for the coroner's post.

The allegation came from Robert G. Thomas, Republican candidate for coroner, who charged also that refusal of two Madison county deputy coroners to "go along" with the assessment were removed by Davis from their deputy posts and replaced by a competing funeral director in the same ward.

Thomas, who formerly was a deputy coroner for many years but who resigned the post when Davis was appointed by the county board as coroner in June 1967, told the assembly a Republican meeting in "Godfrey that the assessment 'was

Cong. Price Urges Orderly Social Change

Change is inevitable but it must be directed into constructive channels, Cong. Melvin Price said here Tuesday in urging repudiation of those who seek to "foment disorder and violence in our changing society."

We are going through a turbulent period. Our country is changing so rapidly that today's speeches become obsolete overnight," Price said in addressing a joint luncheon meeting of over 125 Granite City Rotarians and Optimists and Madison Rotarians. The meeting was held at the Rose Bowl.

"Heightened by vast technological innovations introduced since the end of world war II, the forces of change pose serious challenges. How do we as people direct this change?"

"Our perspective for answering this lies partially in our nation's history. Today's turbulence reflects the revolutionary spirit of our war of rebellion against the British crown. Today's problems also have their roots in our nation's history."

Draft Dodging, Crime

"During the Revolutionary War, draft dodgers and others not in favor of our struggle went to Canada," the veteran legislator noted.

"A hundred years ago, many hundreds were killed in anti-Civil War draft riots in New York City. Two hundred years ago in our New England towns, it wasn't safe anywhere after dark."

"This does not mean that social disorder is to be condoned because it occurred before. It does mean that social ferment has been part of our heritage. Dissent has, too. But not to the point where it threatens to destroy the basic framework of our society."

"Anarchy had no place in our country then. It has no place now. Extremism has no legitimate role in our nation. Our heritage of revolutionary spirit cannot be construed as a license for anarchy."

Consensus and Restraint

If our society is to function properly during this period of rapid social change, if we are to maintain social equilibrium, consensus and mutual restraint must be observed.

"Brawn must not replace brains."

And today, because our people are better educated and our national government is committing more resources for our people—especially our young people—to obtain sound education, we have more brainspower available to us than ever before for solving our problems."

The East St. Louisian, who has represented the district continuously since 1944, asserted that "we must not be swayed by angry cries seeking to drown out the silent majority."

"That majority must be heard because the problems we face are too complex for the shrill voice of the demagogue or the shattering bark of the extremist's gun."

"Our problems will not be solved by emotional harangues or demagoguery or guerrilla tactics, nor will they be solved by ignoring them or issuing platitudes on them. They demand full and candid discussion and detailed plans for action."

Role of Civil Volunteers

Cong. Price said service club members such as those present at the luncheon are endeavoring "to instill within the hearts and minds of young America the values of community service and good citizenship."

Commenting Gene H. Sternberg, Granite City building contractor, on his election as president of Optimist International, the speaker said, "What better way to serve your nation than to help young America? As the Roman philosopher, Cicero, said, 'What greater or better gift can we offer the republic than to teach and instruct our youth?'"

"I am proud to know that Rotary and Optimist clubs are so committed to the youth of this nation and so dedicated to inspiring respect for the law and promoting active interest in good government and civic affairs. These are among the most important issues facing us today."

"I am proud, too, that you are dedicated to advancing international understanding, good will and peace. In this era of nuclear interdependence, the cause of peace must be waged vigorously and tirelessly. The quest for peace may be lonely times, but it must never cease."

"From the time of your founding, you have committed your resources to solving our nation's problems. This is the American way."

Way to Solve Problems

"De Toqueville, a French nobleman and one of the most acute observers of our past, wrote that Americans see a problem and immediately form a group or committee to get the job done. We are still solving pressing national and local problems by coming together—voluntarily and in unprecedented numbers."

"Estimates are that 55 million volunteers serve philanthropic organizations, many in divisions working for more than one organization. Many more are needed to help resolve our problems."

"I am convinced that volunteer power can help our nation strengthen its sense of purpose, heal its wounds and bind our national unity."

"You have a tremendous job facing you, but it must be done. We can look to our government for help. But in the final analysis, there must be citizen participation and local involvement to meet our tasks."

Cong. Price described "the individual" as "the cornerstone of our society. As he relates to his society, he will determine the course society takes. If he participates meaningfully, he serves as an important cog—a source of strength—in the larger social orchestra."

Challenges Can Be Met

"It is because we recognize these challenges that we will solve them. Defeatism has never been any part of the American character; it did not conquer the wilderness, build the cities, build the freest and fairest society in the world, or reach out to aid the oppressed of many lands."

"America's strength transcends its weaknesses. Admitting the need to correct those weaknesses—even though the pace at times be slow—enables this nation to go forward to its destiny of enlightened world leadership."

"Despite our problems, we have proven that ours is the best system of government, as clumsy as some people may feel it is."

"Our system works, our spirit is contagious, and our tradition captures the imagination of most of mankind."

Congressional Workload

The speaker noted that Congress in the past decade has changed from a six-month-in-Washington, six-months-at-home schedule, instead adjourning in mid-October in election years and late December in other years.

This is due to growth of government—three new federal departments have been added in the past ten years—and due to Congress doing its work more thoroughly. Price said.

Instead of blanket authorizations, for example, the Armed Services Committee now acts on each category of military equipment, the number to be purchased, the kinds of propulsion, the manufacturer, subcontractors, unit cost and expenditures for research and development.

In addition to determining which proposals are essential for national security, based on testimony by the armed services, the committee has been able to speed the development of such projects as the "flying hospital" and the huge new cargo plane, the congressman said.

He was introduced by George T. Wilkins Jr., of SIU-SW Warren Decatur, Granite City Rotary president, and Sternberg were introduced. It was reported that the proposed Horseshoe Lake park will be the Optimist topic next week, and Herman Mueller reviewed plans for "Youth Appreciation Week."

Six-Horse Clydesdale Hitch to Visit Area

Wilson's six-horse hitch, perfectly matched Clydesdales from Scotland, Canada and the U.S., will be at the A&P Food store, Nameoki and Fehling roads, on Friday Nov. 1 from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. for the residents to visit. They will be hitched to a 400-pound Wilson wagon.

The average weight of each of the horses, less the 110 pounds and a horsehoe takes 3 1/2 pounds of steel as compared to 11 ounce shoe of the saddle horse.

Faces 4 Traffic Charges

Theodore Brown, 19, of 409 Selb street, Venice, was arrested on four traffic charges at 1:45 p.m. yesterday at Klein and Bissell streets in Venice. Brown posted $125 cash bond pending a magistrate hearing Nov. 6. Venice police filed charges of speeding, driving without a driver's license, failure to obtain a certificate of title and improper use of license plates. Police said Brown told them he bought the car at a St. Louis junk yard with the plates on it.

Retired Principal Harry Marshall Is Found Dead

William Harry Marshall, 61, retired Frohardt school principal and 34-year teacher in the Granite City school system, was found dead at his home, 1715 Garfield avenue, about 5:15 p.m. Monday.

Mr. Marshall, who had been in failing health for several years, was found in the hallway by his wife, Adelia, who had to break a glass in a locked storm door to gain entrance. He was hanging by a sashcord that had been attached to a register vent near the ceiling.

Coroner Leonard Davis said an inquest will be scheduled. A note was found, but the contents were not disclosed. Mr. Marshall was a native of Elwood, Ind., and lived here about 35 years. He was a member of Masonic Lodge 877, the Royal Arch Masons, Knights Templar and Low 12 Club.

He attended Eureka College, receiving a BS degree in 1924 and later a Masters degree at the University of Illinois. His teaching career began at McKinley school in 1924, and he was principal and teacher at the old Liberty school and at McKinley before going to Mitchell school as principal.

Mr. Marshall later returned to McKinley school as principal in 1927, becoming principal at Frohardt school, serving there until 1965. He retired in 1966.

In addition to his wife, Mr. Marshall is survived by a brother, Thomas J. Marshall of Santa Barbara, Calif.; and two sisters, Mrs. Charles (Glady) Liley of Belleville and Mrs. William (Elizabeth) Jenkins of Granite City.

Services were held at 10 a.m. today at the First United Presbyterian Church, 22nd and Delmar avenue. Further information is given in today's obituary column.

Members of the Elite Hairdressers attended a three-day state convention of the Illinois Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association which ended Monday in Springfield.

In the local group were Miss Dorothy Line, Stanley Coleman, Earl Tucker, Miss Marcela Tucker, Mrs. Sheila Morgan, Mrs. Sue Cook, Mrs. Judy Broshow, Miss Joanne Prewett and Earl Parsons.

Stanley Coleman presented a model, Mrs. Morgan in the "Parade of Affiliates."

The new trend in fall hair styles, "Curl and Curve," was shown. The Elite Hairdressers were presented with a certificate for their participation in the "Parade of States" at the National Convention held in Miami Beach, Fla.

Warehouse Reducing School Supply Costs

Because Granite City schools have purchased larger warehouse-office facilities, the former Stokes Lumber Co. at 20th and Adams streets, supplies are being ordered in larger quantities and savings are being achieved, a report by Comptroller Victor G. Anderson to the school board disclosed.

Of 28 kinds of canned goods purchased for school cafeterias, 21 were less expensive this fall than a year ago and five increased in price. Expenditures for equal quantities of the 26 foods amounted to $44,607 in 1967-68 and $38,668 in 1968-69, a reduction of $5,939.

"The comparisons are subject to variables which it is not possible to determine with any degree of accuracy, but they provide some information relative to pricing advantages available because of our current ability to warehouse merchandise," Anderson noted.

Cheaper Despite Inflation

"The Department of Labor consumer price index indicates a food cost increase from 117.7 in August 1967 to 121.3 in July 1968 for the Chicago area. No figures for the St. Louis area were quoted.

"The increase of 3.6 would tend to reflect in increased costs in purchasing for the current year."

"Some particular items may have increased or decreased, through the law of supply and demand, because of good or poor crops."

More Meals Being Served

"Total plate count has increased substantially in the current year," the comptroller added.

"As a result, it will be necessary to increase quantity of purchase on many items above the estimated quantities shown on our bid request. This will be no great problem since our specifications reserve the right to increase or decrease quantities by 20%."

He listed the cost reduction in the 26 categories at 13.24%. Biggest drop was in the cost of catsup, instead of $70.11 and a unit price of $7.38 for 950 boxes in 1967-68, the 1968-69 figures are $55.00 and $5.79. Tomato paste costs $9.10 a unit, compared to $11.70 a year ago, and fruit cocktail has dropped from $7.95 to $6.26.

"With this 13.24% overall decrease considered along with the 3.6 increase in the consumer price index for food products it would seem evident that some substantial savings are already being realized from our ability to accept larger deliveries and to warehouse the products delivered," Anderson said.

Report Change Made For V. A. Pensioners

For more than 98,000 Illinois veterans and dependents on Veterans Administration pension rolls, the end-of-year annual income questionnaire will come a month early this year, according to John B. Naser, manager of VA's regional office in Chicago.

He said that check-sized report cards will be enclosed with pension payments mailed about Nov. 1, instead of the usual Dec. 1. Deadline for returning the questionnaire has been moved up from Jan. 31 to Jan. 15.

Rearrangement of the reporting dates was necessary to assure that checks to be mailed Feb. 1 can be properly adjusted under restriction legislation enacted by Congress this year.

V.A. must have the pensioner's report of outside income to compute his continued entitlement or to increase his rates under the new Public Law 90-275 which becomes effective Jan. 1.

Naser said payments will be discontinued Feb. 1 to all pensioners who have not returned their completed income reports. Income reports are required only from pension recipients, he said. Veterans receiving compensation for service-connected disabilities will receive automatic increases, average eight percent, Jan. 1 under a different law enacted by Congress this year.

The two Ybarras are about the same age and size. The local Ybarra said he has received a number of calls, some of them congratulating him for participating in such a program. He pointed out he is in no way connected with it.

MORE ABOUT Craft Workers

injunction that would have involved the contractor, the crafts workers and the Chemical Workers union if the repair work was not completed.

The Chemical Workers strike began Oct. 1 in a dispute primarily involving wages, but during the first week of the walkout striking chemical workers did not picket or chastise the construction workers gate, and work on the furnace repairs continued without interruption.

Both Furnaces Down

With both furnaces out of operation at the blast furnace plant, repair of at least one unit was considered imperative so that production may be resumed when the labor difficulties are settled. The second furnace broke down about two years ahead of the regular replacement schedule, while the other unit already was down and awaiting repair, company officials said.

During the first week of the construction workers strike, however, union leaders charged the company was using the construction gate for purposes other than admission of craft workers employed on the furnace project. The union then placed a picket at the gate. The construction workers honored the picket line and did not return to their jobs until Tuesday morning.

The Dow plant strike, growing out of a dispute over seniority provisions and job security clauses in a new contract, began Aug. 31 and went into its 55th day today.

Typing, Shorthand Courses Offered At Venice Center

Quad-City residents interested in taking 15-week courses in shorthand or typing at the Venice-Lincoln Technical Center may register at the school or call 876-7792, Venice Supt. of School John O. Pier announced Monday evening at a meeting of the Venice board of education.

The accredited courses may also contribute high school credits to persons who have left school prior to graduation and are seeking a diploma, the educator explained. Vacancies still exist in two classes which started at the school this week, and additional sessions will be scheduled if sufficient interest is generated, Pier said.

$10 Course Fee
A fee of $10 per subject for the entire 15-week course will be charged to students who attend three-hour sessions one evening per week.

He noted that the low fee is made possible through the school district's financial arrangement with the Illinois office of public instruction, which provides funds for instruction purposes, together with grants from federal agencies.

Participation in one or both courses is open to adults of any income bracket for the same cost, Pier pointed out.

Gregg System shorthand classes, taught by a teacher named James Gregg, are held each Monday from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m., with typing sessions under the supervision of Don Davinroy Tuesdays during the same hours.

A maximum of 15 students per class is permitted, Supt. Pier explained, adding that four or five vacancies still remain in both the Monday and Tuesday evening courses.

"Once these classes are filled, we will compile a list of interested persons and begin additional sessions when ten or more people have registered," he said.

Cashier Training
A new type of instruction program for this area, sponsored by the National Cash Register Co., will be incorporated at the Venice-Lincoln Technical Center's overall curriculum in March on an experimental basis, Supt. Pier informed board members.

The training program will involve four weeks of intensive schooling for prospective employees of large supermarkets and other high-speed tabulating operations, including check-out cashiers, stocking labeling and inventory procedures, and similar techniques.

Pier said NCR will provide

FAIR SHARE AWARDS presented by the United Fund to employees of the First Granite City National Bank and the Granite City Steel Employees Credit Union. Accepting plaques from Thomas R. Remington (right), general chairman, and Earl J. Dotzauer and Mrs. Dean Davis for bank employees.

AWARD presented to employees of Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. for exceeding their United Fund fair share of giving accepted by, left to right—David Vogler, installation foreman; Elmer Stokes, repair foreman; Curt Hall, CWA Local 6600; Miss Leetta Marmion, Miss Granite City; Dennis Gordon and Norman Stawer, CWA Local 660; and Roger Ward, unit manager.

several training machines and qualified personnel to conduct the program. "This form of training may be given in con-junction with academic courses presently available at the center, or as a separate-instruction project," he noted.

Child Care Center
In other action, board members authorized payments of $286 to Friedman's furniture store for equipment for the Venice-Lincoln Child Care Center and $364 to Creative Playthings, Inc., for toys. The same will be reimbursed from state and federal allocations.

The superintendent said an area between the gymnasium and shop buildings at the Venice-Lincoln school currently is being fenced to provide an outdoor playground for children whose parents attend daytime classes at the center.

About 25 pre-school-age youngsters presently are enrolled in

GAA Float Wins 1st in GC Homecoming Parade

A float entered by the Girls Athletic Association won first place in Granite City high school's Homecoming parade Tuesday afternoon. Linda Wetton was the chairman, and the organization was presented with a $10 award by the Student Council, parade sponsor.

The float depicted a Warrior teepee with a football player inside. A goalpost at the other end had an Edwardsville Tiger hanging from it, with a bonfire under the Tiger. Five Indian Warriors rode the float, with three sitting around a large drum in the middle.

Red flowers covered the sides, with "Hang Up the Tiger" spelled in black on both sides. Runners-up were floats entered by the Latin Club, decorated by Future Homemakers of America, third; and the Social Study Club, fourth.

Judges were Mrs. Valerie Evenden, Press-Record reporter; Gilbert Walmesley, assistant principal at the high school; Miss Mary Ann Rinehart, teacher; and Clyde Boyd, Third Ward alderman.

The parade, though it had a police escort, was marred by a minor accident caused by weaving traffic. A truck hauling a float, driven by John Brinkmeyer, 1824 Ferguson avenue, was forced to slow down and was struck in the rear by an auto driven by Zoe Ann Tatum, 1116 Twenty-seventh street, a student. It was filled with other parade floats but no one was hurt.

Young People Not Ecstatic About Nixon, Humphrey

A sampling of 300 young people in Madison and St. Clair counties shows that youth favors none of the presidential candidates while 80% of those sampled from the business community of the two counties favor Nixon.

These are figures gleaned from a survey conducted by local Illinois Power Co. employees and reported in a talk by IP's president, Wendell J. Kelley, at the close of a youth-management forum held at the St. Clair Country club.

The 300 young people interviewed included 170 high school students, 110 college students, most of them from SIU-SW, and 20 who are working. The 73 adults surveyed were mainly management people from area industries attending the forum to obtain insights into the attitudes and interests of young people.

Ninety-eight percent of the management group expects Nixon to win, while two-thirds of the young people pick Nixon as the winner and 10% believe Wallace will be the next president.

About 55% of the young people think of themselves as "hawks." Of the management group, 70% are hawks and 20% "doves," with the remainder not liking either designation.

War, Inflation, Unrest

The nation's No. 1 problem is war and foreign policy, agree the young people and the adults. Second choice of the young is inflation and the international money crisis, with only 15% of the younger group picking that problem.

The young people saw plight of the cities and racial disturbance as the No. 2 problem. Crime as the nation's No. 3 problem was chosen by the young people, while plight of cities and racial disturbance ranked third with the elders.

The older group ranked Andy Williams and Perry Como as its favorite singers; about half the younger group picked Simon and Garfunkle, and The Association was second choice.

The young and the older were in near agreement on the amount of money needed for a young man to be married and start a family in suburbia.

About 45% of both groups said the salary should be $650, while 25% of both groups think the figure should be $800 and only 15% of both groups think $500 would be enough.

College or Training

There is also agreement on the amount of education needed. About half of both groups think two years of college or high school plus special training is minimum. More adults than young people think a college degree is necessary.

On a life's work, members of the business community think a profession or owning a business offers the best opportunity for a young man, while another 40% choose work in a large company. A business or profession is chosen by nearly 30% of the young people, who also choose a large company as second place.

Most of the young people are believers in the private capital system, thinking that private industry should operate everything except the mails and health services. Industry operation of telephone service, steel, mail service, gas and electric service, television, railroads and hospital and medical services was overwhelmingly chosen by members of the business community.

The future apparently is viewed with some trepidation by youth. Although 44% say they are optimistic, about 20% say they are pessimistic and the remainder will just "wait and see." Among business leaders, 54% are optimistic, 8% pessimistic and 38% will "wait and see."

Like Best Liked

There appear to be no real national heroes. Forty percent of the older group and more than two-thirds of the younger group could think of no living American they admired.

Of those who replied to the question, President Eisenhower got 25% of the votes. Only other Americans to get more than

Auto Window Broken

Victor Buehler, 2600 Madison avenue, reported at 1:10 p.m. Wednesday that vandals broke a window out of his 1967 auto while it was parked at Prather junior high school.

One vote from the older group were Billy Graham with three and Senator McCarthy with three. From the youth group, Edward Kennedy received 14 votes, Senator McCarthy, 12, George Wallace, eight and Senator Dirksen, seven. Nixon and Humphrey tied with six votes each.

Three young women at SIU-SW chose John F. Kennedy, chancellor, as their most admired living American, and somewhere there are six men chosen by their own sons and daughters as the American most admired.

Tips about apples!

Now...right now, is the time to buy apples.

Right now at A&P, apples are at their best.

Here are some apple buying and handling tips:

SELECT APPLES THAT ARE FIRM, particularly the larger sizes. Big apples tend to mature more rapidly, and when soft, usually have a mealy texture.

REFRIGERATE YOUR APPLES. Warm temperatures cause apples to lose their crispness and tangy flavor.

QUICK PEELING TIP: If you are going to cook apples, dip them quickly in and out of boiling water. The skin will come off much more readily.

TO PREVENT DISCOLORATION OF PEELED APPLES, place slices in a pan of cold water. Add a pinch of salt for each whole apple peeled.

LEAKING PIES: Sprinkle salt on spilled juice from pies in a hot oven. The juice will turn crispy, making it easier to remove.

DISCOLORATION OF ALUMINUM UTENSILS can be removed by boiling a number of apple peelings in the utensil.

THE BEST TIP OF ALL: Don't miss the wonderful selection, the great apple values A&P has right now:

Public Meeting Tonight

Many Voice Support of Group to Help Gifted

Proposed formation of a Granite City chapter of the National Association for Gifted Children at a public meeting at 7:30 tonight at Grigsby Junior high school has been endorsed by a large number of local residents and officials.

Gene H. Sternberg Jr., president of Optimist International, this week cited "the community serving and youth serving potential" of the proposed chapter.

He said it "should draw strong support from all those people in our community who desire the best possible leadership in all the activities of tomorrow's society—governmental, educational, scientific, economic, humanitarian.

Contact With Adult Leaders

"It is most gratifying and reassuring in these somewhat confusing times that there are those who would give of themselves to make sure the youngster with that little extra spark of talent or skill has the best possible chance of enhancing that spark through association with community leaders of skill and integrity."

"The further involvement of these talented young people in the broadening and strengthening programs of the NAGC will provide us with insurance that the men and women who lead tomorrow's institutions and projects will be most capable," Sternberg added.

Associate Circuit Judge Fred P. Schuman voiced confidence that the group "will be of great benefit to our community through the children it will reach," bringing to light "opportunities that otherwise would go unnoticed."

Opportunity for Students

"It will be a valuable opportunity for our children, their parents and the entire community. It will involve these children in progressive activities that would not be available in their schools."

Mrs. M. J. Freedman comments that "Granite City cherishes her children—all of them. Yet so many of our so-called ascendant young people leave every year, not wanting to return. We can't afford to let them go."

"We must challenge these bright students with an environment so educationally exciting and so culturally satisfying that they will stay. This can be accomplished by recognizing the need for a city-wide program for gifted children, and by a willingness to support one."

Mrs. Mary Gene Knufinke, Granite City librarian, points out that "too often, the gifted child does not have the opportunity to receive qualified guidance or instruction to bring a talent or only partially developed talent to full fruition."

Community to Benefit

"There will soon be in Granite City a group dedicated to this work. Parents of gifted children will be involved. They will help to discover or help to develop frequently hidden talents. Everyone will benefit, first the child and then the parents. The community cannot help but be made a better place as a result of this activity."

Madison county State's Attorney Leon Scroggins views the proposed chapter as "a great asset. We cannot afford to waste this potential talent. Business, labor and government increasingly demand this type of individual."

Granite City Mayor Donald Partney expects the chapter to "be most beneficial to our community. When we help a gifted child to attain his responsible place in a community, we are encouraging the future leaders of our city. This type of individual is vital to all of us."

Howard W. Kaseberg, farmer and businessman, says, "Much attention has been given to special programs of learning for retarded children. Young people who have exceptional ability for understanding and retaining educational material have been almost completely neglected. In many school systems, no provision is made for accelerated classes.

Rapid Learning Progress

"Granite City schools have been furnished in this regard and have pioneered a program for gifted children. Through accelerated classes and aptitude testing programs, children are able to progress in their learning at a rate that matches their abilities."

"Such a program is a great stride forward. It affords a talented child the opportunity to learn at a rapid enough pace to keep him interested; this is important to reduce the number of dropouts. It allows other classes to progress at a less accelerated speed so that those students who need more time may obtain a high quality education."

"Another important consideration is that the gifted child may learn much more total information in a given number of elementary and secondary school years so that he is better equipped to enter college and adjust more readily to college level courses."

Ability, Leadership Needed

"There is a great need today for outstanding people in many professional and executive careers. By providing such accelerated training opportunities for our young people, we are helping to fill this urgent need."

"These are the people who will be the pioneers of various sciences and arts and technologies in their generation. Let's give them and their teachers our wholehearted support."

School Supt. B. J. Davis notes that "although there is a well developed program for our gifted and talented students within the schools, many more meaningful experiences could be provided for them through a civic organization."

"Community involvement with these students could very well encourage them to assume an active role in youth leadership preparing them for adult leadership in later years."

"It is necessary to gain and maintain the interests of talented persons for the continued growth of our community."

Attorney Irvin Slate Jr. says, "Our school system is outstanding. However, the officers must necessarily channel the district's limited resources and personnel into a program designed for the great majority of students. This is as it should be where public funds are involved."

Develop Talent to Utmost

"Yet, something must be done for the gifted child in order to develop his ability and for the betterment of the community. The NAGC can fill a great need in our educational system, complementing the excellent work of the schools by developing our talented children to their utmost."

Raymond L. Henley, a life insurance district agent, believes, "We are living in a time of great opportunities and great problems. Unless we can provide the quality and abundance of leadership that will make the most of opportunity, only the problems may prevail."

"In every great business, industrial, professional organization or segment of American society, there is great need for executive talent and supervisory personnel who have the capacity with the willingness to accept and properly discharge responsibility. The arts are not only self-expressions of the state of mind and mores of our people."

He said the chapter is "the least we can do in an effort to better equip our gifted children with insight and inspiration that will help them meet the challenges of forming a better world than we have yet been able to bring about."

The organization is non-profit and was formed to promote the work of the SIU-SW music faculty by serving as liaison between the University and the community.

After a short meeting, members and guests will attend a piano recital featuring two students of the faculty, Heidi Upton and Ada McKinney. Both will someday be concert performers, according to Premezzi.

Other finalists are Ginger Dushman, a senior majoring in elementary education and sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega; Donna Dushman, a junior majoring in speech pathology and sponsored by the Muse; and Marilyn Hays, a senior majoring in business education and sponsored by Phi Beta Lambda. Jr. College Growth Seen in Enrollment

The effect of growth at the junior college level in Illinois is apparent in final enrollment statistics for the fall semester at Illinois State University at Normal.

Figures made available today show that the number of junior college transfers at State more than doubled this fall, from 264 last year to 706 this fall, an increase of 167.4%.

Illinois State's total enrollment for the fall is 13,163, with the greatest increases coming in upper level and graduate totals. Illinois State this semester has 21,697 in at the upper division (junior-senior), indicating the junior colleges are graduating many more students than in previous years.

Other data on enrollment shows there are 5891 men and 7272 women enrolled at State; 2268 students are married, and 6401 are on scholarships of various types.

In junior college transfers, 32 entered at the lower division (freshman-sophomore) level as compared with 221 last year, while 373—an increase of 330—came in at the upper division (junior-senior), indicating the junior colleges are graduating many more students than in previous years.

Adults Over 40 Are Students at ISU

Anyone who has the idea that colleges are only for young people hasn't taken a good look at the enrollment statistics for Illinois State University, Normal, this fall.

It becomes readily apparent that not only does life begin at 40, but education knows right along.

Of the 13,163 students enrolled at State, 455 are aged 40 or above, all the way up to 68 years.

Most of the over-40 people are in the Graduate School, but one man at 59 and one woman at 56 are in their freshman years, two persons at 66 are sophomores and one at 68 is a senior.

Lectures in Humanities Open in Madison Schools

Kevin Manning, director of public and education at the Loretto-Hilton theater of Webster College, lectured Monday at Madison high school to members of the sophomore and senior humanities classes.

He spoke and showed slides on the repertory theater and on Moliere's play, "The Miser." The 40 students will attend a matinee performance of the play at the Loretto-Hilton theater on Feb. 10 and 11.

The humanities program is being initiated in the Madison public schools this year for the first time under a grant from the state.

The classes, grades seven to 12, are set up to provide an enriched and challenging program in literature, composition, music and the visual arts for the able students. They will be lectured on the basis of intelligence and achievement test scores and on past record and ability.

The students also will attend lectures on music and art and will attend symphony concerts and tour the St. Louis Art Museum.

Teachers involved in the program are Mrs. Marguerite Conno, program director, and Miss Elaine Shipcoff at MJHS, Mrs. Dorothy Patton and Lynnwood Parker at Dunbar, and Edwin Barton, Melvin Heisner, Loyal Gunderson and Mrs. Beverly Williamson at MHS. John Falchiff, assistant to the superintendent, is curriculum director in the school system.

Throughout the ages it has always been difficult finding the right words or a meaningful way to say something special to that someone special.

Now we offer you two of the easiest ways of communication:

1. With Walls silver and gold jewelry for both men and women. 2. With an "I AM LOVED" button. It's free of charge here at your "I AM LOVED" headquarters. It says a lot, too.

The button will never replace Walls "I AM LOVED" jewelry in precious metals. But it does serve as a gentle reminder until the real thing comes along.

VHS Student Council Seeks District Meeting

The Venice high school student council shortly will submit a bid to host the 1969 annual convention of the Kaskaskia District of Student Councils in the local area next November.

The bid, to be presented by Venice students at this year's district convention Nov. 2 at Centralia, was approved Monday evening by members of the Venice school board.

Ronald Ganschmierz, VHS student council advisor and an official of the National Association of Student Councils, informed board members that next fall's annual meeting, if Venice high school students are hosts, would be held at SIU-SW. "We have conferred with university authorities and they were very responsive to the idea," he reported. The district convention annually attracts between 600 and 700 student council representatives and faculty advisors from a 12-county area of central and southwestern Illinois.

Several school districts are expected to seek the convention site in their own locales, Venice Sup. John Pifer said, adding that available facilities at SIU-SW, however, may provide a great inducement to schedule the event locally.

Eight GC Students to Attend Choral Clinic

Eight students from the Granite City high school vocal music department will participate in the sixth annual high school choral clinic Saturday at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus.

The clinic will be directed by Dr. Leonard Van Camp, director of choral activities on the campus. The music to be used will be "Te Deum" by Franz Joseph Haydn and "Cant Thy Burden Upon the Lord" by Felix Mendelssohn.

Rehearsals, beginning at 9 a.m. and continuing until 3 p.m., will stress perfection in performance.

Attending will be Janet Young, Janice Seymour, Debbie Hightower, Debbie Knapp, Nels Hediger, Dan Conway, Dan Jackson and Al Stevens III. Warren G. Simpkins, GCIS vocal music director, is in charge of arrangements and will accompany the group.

Korean Pianist Plays For GC Vocal Classes

Young Bang Cho, pianist from Korea and now a ninth grade student at Coolidge junior high school, played before several vocal music classes last week.

She presented a program for the advanced mixed chorus at Granite City high school and for several vocal music classes at Coolidge and later played for the Coolidge freshman mixed chorus of which she is a member.

Her program included four "Two-part Inventions" by Bach, and "Prelude, Opus 28, No. 15," "Impromptu, Opus 29, No. 1," and "Etude, Opus 10, No. 1," all by Chopin.

Arranging the performances for the classes were Mrs. Robert Kozielek, Coolidge vocal music instructor, and Warren G. Simpkins, GCIS vocal music director.

Girls to Join Some Explorer Posts Next Year

A few months ago, it was reported that the nation's largest youth organization, the Boy Scouts of America, was considering a plan for high-school-age girls to join as participants in its program for older boys known as Exploring. Now, it's official, Cahokia Mount Council President Carl E. Mathias reported this week.

The executive board of the Boy Scouts of America has approved a plan permitting girls to become participants in Explorer posts organized to pursue a special interest. The effective date is Jan. 1, 1969. Girls will not be admitted to Cub Scout packs or Boy Scout troops.

Currently, there are 22,000 Explorer posts for boys 14 to 18. About one-third of these are special-interest posts, composed of boys with common, scientific, technical, hobby and vocational interests, such as medicine, aviation, law enforcement, journalism, computers and space technology, Mathias said.

Under the guidelines adopted by the executive board, a post sponsor would have to approve the admission of girls in order for them to join a particular post.

If the sponsor approves and the young lady concerned has a genuine interest in the post specialty, and if the specialty is one that normally is open to girls, she may be permitted to join.

All young women must be registered members of qualified girls' organizations. Approval of parents is required in all cases, it was explained.

The executive board agreed to study the plan during its first year of operation to determine any future changes.

John M. Clauerhour, director of the Exploring Division of the Boy Scouts of America, said the admission of young ladies has been under consideration for a number of years.

Youth surveys, recommendations of the organizations that sponsor Explorer posts, and other factors have indicated that inclusion of girls in the Explorer program would be advantageous.

Granite City PRESS-RECORD

Thurs., Oct. 24, 1968 Page 31

Clauerhour said the board's action today would be a material contribution to the Exploring Division's goal of increasing Explorer enrollment 100% by the end of 1976. This is the terminal date of scouting's new long-range expansion plan known as "Boypower '76."

Winless Tigers Will Visit GCHS For Homecoming Grid Game Friday

In some cases this weekend undefeated football teams will be pitted against one another, but it will be a battle of winless teams at the Granite City high school field at 8 p.m. Friday. Edwardsville and GCHS occupy the Southwestern Conference cellar with 0-4 league records and are 0-5 overall.

The Warriors will be seeking a homecoming victory, and could get it, based on comparative scores.

The Tigers saw Wood River run up a 34-7 triumph while the Warriors held Wood River to a 20-0 win. Against East St. Louis, GCHS was flattened 34-0 and Edwardsville lost 32-0.

Collinsville defeated GCHS 29-14 and had even more trouble with Edwardsville before prevailing 21-13. Alton romped over the Tigers 39-14 and the Warriors 46-7.

In non-conference play, both teams lost to Belleville East. GCHS by 33-0 and Edwardsville by 36-0. The Warriors tied Belleville Althoff 13-13 while the Tigers tied Roosevelt of St. Louis 6-6.

Inexperience, Injuries

Coach Paul Fuchs of Edwardsville reports that "the one thing hurting us more than anything else this season is inexperience. To top it off, our senior quarterback was injured in the first game against Belleville East, and our junior Quarterback was injured and missed last week's game. We don't have enough depth to overcome such injuries.

The Tigers have been passing 12 and 15 times a game but primarily rely on their ground game. Halfback Morris Broadshaw gained over 100 yards against Belleville East. Jim Cerny will be at the other halfback spot and Keith Baer at fullback.

Quarterbacking this week will be by Chuck Miller, 382-pound junior. Rounding the offensive unit will be Pat Peterson at left end and Bill Schmidt at right end.

Dupo at Madison High Tonight for Decisive Midwest Conference Game

The Midwestern Conference football race may be decided at Madison in a game at 7:30 tonight when the Trojans entertain the Dupo Tigers.

The Tigers have gone undefeated this season and currently have a 5-0 overall record and a 3-0 Midwestern Conference record.

The powerful Dupo squad, whose mentor is Paul Stewart, has chalked up victories against Belleville 14-13, Roxana 20-8 and Triad 14-0.

The Trojans, skippered by Alvin Vonst Harts, started slowly by losing to O'Fallon in the opener 27-0 and bowing to Rosary 25-0. But since then, they have won over Highland 74-0 and Triad 32-14 in the conference and beaten Mater Dei 41-23.

Offensive Vs. Control

The pairings with Triad and Mater Dei indicate that MHS has been playing more free-wheeling, high-scoring football while Dupo has stressed defense and ball control.

While the Trojans were in action against Mater Dei last week, the Trojans rested from competition, which could make MHS stronger but possibly less sharp.

Last season the Dupo team won only two Midwestern victories, but the 1968 edition ranks as the best in Dupo's football history. It has already gotten past Bethalto, while MHS still must face that squad, now third in the league standings.

ings with three wins and a loss. The Tiger and Trojan squads are well matched in weight up front, speed on the ends, and drive and experience in the backfield.

Effective Tiger Passer

Quarterbacking for the Tigers will be Dennis Mernick, a 140-pound senior. He has completed 30 of 54 pass attempts this season for one of the better averages in this region.

One of his prime targets is Halfback Wade Teeter, 165-pound senior, who has snared 19 passes and is the second leading scorer on the team with 36 points.

School Boards of Four-County Area Here This Evening

A large gathering of school board officials, school district administrators and secretarial staff members from a four-county area is expected to participate today in a semi-annual conference of the Illinois School Board Association's Southwestern Division, slated to get under way at 5 p.m. at Granite City high school.

Early arrivals will make an inspection tour of local school facilities and attend an open house. A smorgasbord dinner will then be held in the high school cafeteria at 6 p.m.

Several speakers, including officials from the Illinois office of public instruction, are scheduled to participate in panel workshops to be conducted simultaneously between 8:15 and 9:45 p.m., with conferees attending the session of their choice.

Topics to be presented are "How Can We Meet Special Education Requirements?", "The School Board and the Law", "Year-Around School", "School Insurance Programs", "Innovative Ideas in Education", "School Purchasing Procedures" and a "Secretarial Workshop."

Fence in Street Requested For Hospital Construction

Fences on city property and the liability involved were discussed in detail Monday night by Granite City council members.

The aldermen called upon the city's legal staff to study the requests by S. M. Wilson & Co. to block off half of the 2100 block of Iowa street for construction at St. Elizabeth Hospital and the Granite City Housing Authority's request for a curbline fence along Nameoki road at Kirkpatrick Homes.

The Wilson firm, which plans to start soon to construct the hospital annex along Iowa street at the rear of the present building, wants to put a fence down the middle of Iowa street to provide space for construction materials and equipment.

An eight-foot traffic lane would be left open along the one-way, northbound street, City Atty. Allen was instructed to work out an agreement whereby the city would not be liable for any accidents resulting from the fence, and Police Chief Veizer was instructed to study the area to prevent traffic movement problems.

Fence Along Nameoki Rd. The Granite City Housing Authority was given permission to place a four-foot fence along the sidewalk curbline at Kirkpatrick Homes to prevent children running onto the widened Nameoki road. Pedestrian openings are planned at Victory drive where there will be a pedestrian crosswalk traffic signal and at Palmer avenue where a parking lot is being developed across from the housing project.

Permission for the fence hinges on acceptance of liability by the Housing Authority. Fences and hedges along newly-improved Johnson road also were discussed, since it will be necessary to remove and replace several for sidewalk installation. The council heard a report from the project engineer, Kenneth Kieberger of Research Plan Design Associates, that it would cost the city about $20,000 to install concrete retaining walls on private property along Johnson road where sidewalk areas were cut down to grade and sidewalks range from four inches to several feet below the level of yards.

The engineer said the city owns the property one foot beyond the sidewalk, and that it was the property owner's responsibility for private property, although driveways had been lowered. He said the contractor could terrace the yards. Kieberger is to confer with Sixth Ward Alderman Parney on working out programs with property owners.

Alderman Moerlein called for more adequate replacement of driveways in the 2100 and 2200 blocks of Monroe streets where storm sewer lines were installed. He said the wing curbs had not been replaced. Mayor Partney and Alderman Bartisiak, chairman of the Special Sewer committee, said they already have talked to the contractor, S. M. Wilson & Co.

Resurfacing Stalled

Complaining about a delay in the start of special improvement street resurfacing projects, Alderman Poulos urged Mayor Partney to sign the contract with MacLair Asphalt Co. Mayor Partney replied there was no starting date in the contract submitted by the firm, and that he had told the company officials he would not sign it without a date.

A regular state highway department form had been used, but the form had been changed to eliminate a starting date, the mayor said. "This means the city could wait a year or two, I won't sign without the date," he added.

Poulos continued complaining that now there was proper weather to get the work done. He called upon Engineer Kieberger to confer with the company and set a starting date. The projects in Poulos' Third Ward include resurfacing 19th street from Cleveland blvd. east to the railroad tracks and the 2100 block of Benton street.

Turn Down Bill

Council members turned down a bill from East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co. for $1147 for an engineering survey to locate an easement for a water line on Army Depot property from West 20th street to the city's sewage treatment plant.

Several aldermen pointed out the water company was in franchise negotiations with the city and the water line was to have been a part of the franchise which was rejected by the city. It was determined the city had not contracted for the survey, but the Water committee had agreed that the utility do the initial planning.

A request also was made for the easement agreement with the Department of the Army to be transferred from the water company to the city. The easement agreement, which includes a $1075 fee, was referred to the city attorney for an opinion.

Authorization was given for two firms to appraise the proposed site for a new city garage on a tract along 25th street immediately east of the railroad tracks.

Permission was given David Partney to install a 10-foot driveway at 2741 Grand avenue.

Simon Assails Interest On Tax Delinquencies

"The Illinois tax delinquency law permits legal usury," State Senator Paul Simon, Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor, charged Monday in Chicago. He spoke at Holy Trinity high school.

"Religious leaders of all times have condemned excessive interest costs leveled against the poor, and we permit people to take advantage of property owners in Illinois and charge 24% in interest," the 38-year-old Simon told the students.

Simon noted that Catholic, Protestant and Jewish leaders have been unanimous in condemning "the kind of abuses we have tolerated. Martin Luther on three occasions wrote public papers attacking the charging of the rate of 10% as criminal."

The law in Illinois permits people who have been delinquent in taxes for a year to have those taxes paid by some unknown party, who then can charge 24% interest or the property owner loses the property.

Simon said that "substantial progress has been made in the credit field in the Kerner-Shapiro administration, but more needs to be done, and this is a good example."

Three Tires Flattened

Legal Opinions Sought on GC Council's Budget Changes

Legal opinions on budget changes by the Granite City council were requested twice during Monday night's meeting by Alderman Fry.

He protested a transfer of $1000 from the sales tax reserve to survey for the proposed new north-south street along the railroad tracks and later another sales tax fund transfer to purchase equipment for the street department. The truck and highlift machine bids were in excess of the budgeted amounts.

While the council approved the $1000 transfer resolution, Alderman Fry said he would research the matter and submit a written opinion. Fry said he was concerned over possible tax objections. He pointed out the survey work for the new street was not included in the budget.

The low bid of $7851 by Mathew Chevrolet for two dump trucks, while the budget figure was $7500. The lone bid for a highlift from O. B. Avery Co., St. Louis, was $14,585, compared to the budgeted amount of $841, which is under the budgeted $1000.

Fry was joined by Jarrett in voting against purchases of the trucks and highlift. They also opposed the fund transfer for the street survey.

Moerlen suggested the city attorney study court decisions in municipal budget matters to get pertinent information. "We need to know precisely just what the council can do under its budget,"

Nonn said that six months after the fiscal year starts, the council can change the budget in "any way it sees fit. That's after Nov. 1," he added. He was challenged by Fry who said he believed the council could not increase the budget.

Parney pointed out the street department has $2000 in its contingency fund for use toward the equipment purchase and other possible savings could be instituted to cover the equipment costs.

Alderman Johnson called for preparation of a resolution to transfer the needed amount from sales tax to the street department for the equipment purchases. Fry and Jarrett again were the lone dissenters.

Purchase of fire hose, voted down at an earlier meeting, was approved for bid call for 1000 feet of 2½-inch hose and 400 feet of 1½-inch. The footage includes the amount borrowed by the street department with $500 street funds budgeted for payment toward the total cost.

Off-Street Parking Accepted by the council was a legal opinion from City Atty. Allen that parking meter reserve funds could be used to develop off-street parking lots in the downtown meter area.

In other business, the council accepted a City Plan Commission recommendation for rezoning 28 residential lots as C-1 and C-2 commercial property for development of the new shopping center for Carp's Department store and a Footdown super market. An ordinance to change the zoning for the lots along the west side of Nameoki road, between Pontoon road and Tri Mor Bowl, is to be prepared.

A meeting with officers of Milam East Corp., contractor for the city garbage and trash collections, is to be scheduled to review complaints. The complaints concern collections along routes and use of the dump facilities by Granite City residents wanting to haul their own trash.

Mayor Partney said his office is receiving numerous complaints which will be compiled for the meeting. Nonn remarked the city could save about $20,000 in contract cost if individual hauling to the dump on Chouteau island was not permitted.

"No other cities that I know of provide that privilege," he commented.

Dust Monitoring At the request of the city Air Pollution Control Board, the city inspection office will be assigned the task of gathering data from five dust monitoring machines to be installed throughout the city. The air board had suggested a high school student be employed, but Mayor Partney and council members noted the liability that might be involved with a student operating a city vehicle. Permission was given Detective Leo Willis to attend an advanice identification and fingerprinting course to be conducted at the University of Illinois Nov. 4-8. The expense allowance amounts to $145.

Alderman Jarrett suggested the city promote a Vietnam War Honor Roll board, seeking cooperation from local veterans and civic organizations. It was noted that a plaque in memory of area servicemen killed in Vietnam is planned at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Received by the council was an invitation to attend the Paul A. Grigsby junior high school dedication at 2 p.m. Sunday.

Permission was given Robert Thomas, local funeral director and Republican candidate for county coroner, to conduct a motorcycle on Nov. 2.

Placed on file was a notice from the county board of supervisors offering use of a new county animal shelter and services of humane office personnel at a cost of $10 a year per 100 population. Granite City has its own animal shelter and humane officer.

Autos driven by Betty Johnson, 2308 Wilson avenue, and Virginia Reed, 4501 Walter avenue, were involved in an accident at 6:10 p.m. Monday at Wayne and Jill avenues.

One-Way is Ok'd For 2500, 2600 Blocks of Adams

One-way traffic in the 2500 and 2600 blocks of Adams street was approved Monday night by Granite City council members, who also adopted two other ordinances for vehicle controls. Adams street will be one-way, southbound from 27th to 26th street, as requested in petitions received by the city several weeks ago.

A two-hour parking zone was established alongside a dance studio on 24th and Benton streets, with the zone to extend 50 feet north of 24th on the east side of Benton; and an ordinance was approved to place stop signs on Circle drive at Sinclair avenue in North Granite.

Lighting Deficit Predicted Despite a forecast by Mayor Partney that the street and alley lighting fund would show a $4700 deficit next April—the end of the city fiscal year—the council approved a resolution for installation of 13 additional lights.

The mayor said he had conferred with the comptroller and learned that with the new lighting for south Nameoki road, the available funds would not meet costs. Alderman Baerich said he was keeping close watch on lighting costs and was certain the budgeted $50,000 would not be exceeded.

Partney yadded that not all of the $50,000 revenue would be needed. Baerich replied that a fund transfer could be submitted.

Three Injury Claims

Pending Against City

Three notices of intent to file claims against the city were presented to the Granite City council Monday night and were referred to City Atty. Richard Allen.

All three notices were presented by parents who said their youngsters were injured because of the city's negligence.

Mrs. Frances Wickam of No. 8 Ellen's Trailer Court, 2301 Nameoki road, said her daughter, Ina, was injured July 30 in a fall in a hole in a debris-littered alley off Ridgeway avenue between Lincoln avenue and East 23rd street.

Grady Robert Simpson, 2569 Circle drive, said his son, Linde, was hurt May 9 in front of the Simpson home when a wooden divider used to separate sanitary sewer lines fell and injured the boy's feet. City Atty. Allen was advised to confer with the contractor, General Contracting Co., to determine liability.

In the third claim notice, Mrs. Joan Howell, 1649 Olive street, said her son, Jeffrey, was injured last April 18 while playing with a "probe" that had been left in the Howell front yard by a city employee. The boy's left foot was injured.

The city also received notice from the circuit court that a $25,000 personal injury suit had been filed by William Quinn for injuries sustained in a fall in a hole between the sidewalk and curb in the 2400 block of Hodges avenue.

TAKE YOUR CHOICE. Nowhere to go, nowhere to do—an alleyway for a playground—and these youngsters appear heading for mischief, if not more serious trouble. Youth programs financed through the 1969 United Fund appeal can provide more beneficial "recreation."

Driving Charge Filed ticket at 9:20 p.m. Monday on Michael E. Vaughn, 3131 Lydia lane, was issued an arrest charge of careless driving at 3900 Nameoki road.

YMCA Programs Beneficial to Youngsters

"If they didn't have the 'Y' to go to, I don't know what my teenagers would find to do on Saturday nights," a mother of two teenage children said recently.

Hundreds of Quad-City youngsters would find it difficult to "find something to do" without the diversified programs offered by the local YMCA, one of the busiest agencies of the Tri-Cities United Fund.

Not only young people take part in "Y" activities, the YMCA of the Tri-City Area has an equally wide variety of rewarding, entertaining and informative programs for the pre-school-age child to the senior citizen.

Around the World
The local YMCA is one of more than 150 associations in the United States and Canada which gives service to over 4,000,000 members each year. Around the world, the "Y" serves in 78 countries. However, each YMCA is locally autonomous and is governed by its own board of directors elected from interested community leaders.

Activities for men and women include special interest groups, clubs, exercise classes, sports instruction, swimming and water safety lessons and recreational activities. Boys and girls participate in a wide range of activity, including special education and swimming. This along with social, special events and instruction, swimming and water safety lessons and recreational activities gives the youngsters an excellent opportunity for all-around development.

The YMCA's Teen Town not only provides dancing and other recreation, but gives the youths an opportunity to practice responsible citizenship and leadership. Special events include aquatic and physical education sessions, lobby games, service projects, together with Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y club activities.

The Place to Go
If you are a high school teenager it seems as though the place to go on Saturday nights is the YMCA. Every Saturday, teenagers throughout the area number played in "Y" Basketball leagues operated in Madison, Mitchell and Granite City. Total YMCA activities, including more than 268 separate groups, were supervised by 175 leaders.

The agency will receive an United Fund allotment of $7,800 to finance its programs in 1969. Another Teen Town activity is being carried out in Madison, with the United Fund providing $25,000 for operation of two teen centers.

the bands that the kids want to hear. And the nice thing about this is that we have not had to raise the admission price in order to bring in their favorite groups."

Parents can be confident that if their son or daughter comes to the "Y" dances on Saturday nights, the teenager will be at a place where someone has their personal interest uppermost in mind, Hasse commented.

Personal Interest
Teen Town Hostess, Mrs. Louise Serfas, is on hand each week to greet the young people. "She greets each teenager as if he were her own child," Hasse noted, adding that Mrs. Serfas takes a great personal interest in the welfare of all the boys and girls who attend the Saturday night dances. Other dance supervisors include three or four college-age boys, a member of the Granite City police department and Hasse.

In 1967, YMCA youth and adult membership increased from 542 to 1119. In 1968, 1545 registered non-members were served in special programs representative of all ages from pre-school seniors to Teen Town and Senior Citizens.

Thirteen Junior Tri-Hi-Y and Senior Tri-Hi-Y clubs, involving 270 girls met regularly, learning leadership skills and providing service for the YMCA and community. Hundreds of others were active in such activities as Father-Son Indian Guides; Parent-Child Sex Education classes; adult dance classes; ballet and guitar lessons; craft classes, bowling groups, summer camping and field trips; pre-kindergarten programs and others.

Last year, the "Y" swimming pool was used more heavily than ever before and more than 1000 individuals were provided instruction. Total attendance for recreational periods neared 10,000.

Soccer Leagues
Over 300 boys enjoyed participation in the YMCA Soccer Leagues, and about the same number played in "Y" Basketball leagues operated in Madison, Mitchell and Granite City. Total YMCA activities, including more than 268 separate groups, were supervised by 175 leaders.

The agency will receive an United Fund allotment of $7,800 to finance its programs in 1969. Another Teen Town activity is being carried out in Madison, with the United Fund providing $25,000 for operation of two teen centers.

Auto Hit from Rear

While waiting for a traffic light to change, the auto driven by Genevieve J. Kirksey, 2619 Iowa street, was struck at the rear by a car driven by Ellen M. Dean, 2024 Lakeview drive, at 4:15 p.m. Monday at 16th street and Madison avenue.

The Madison Teen Towns are supervised by Jerry Zahm, who said that in the 12-month period from May 1, 1967, to April 30, 1968, teenagers used the Teen Town over 30,000 times.

Mayors' Council To Meet, Discuss Municipal Needs

A panel discussion of municipal problems and potential legislative action in next year's General Assembly session will feature a meeting of the Southwestern Illinois Council of Mayors next Wednesday at which Granite City Mayor Donald Partney will be the host, it was announced today.

The meeting will be held in the Rose Bowl restaurant, 3100 N. Meade road, in a dinner session beginning at 7 p.m.

Erwin Plegge, mayor of Beetham and secretary of the Mayor's Council, said the panel discussion will be in two sections—"How To" and "Maybe We Ought to."

He said the "How To" phase of the meeting will involve discussion of questions concerning municipal operation such as annexation, extension of water lines, experiences with special assessments and similar matters. The second phase, he added, will involve questions of legislation necessary to municipal government activity to give the legislative committee some idea of a program which will be developed for presentation to the legislature next year.

The panel will include Mayor Stephen Maerz of Madison, Mayor Clyde Wiseman of Alton, Mayor Barney Metz of Dupont and George Washburn of East St. Louis, administrator to Mayor Alvin G. Fields. Mayor Wiseman is a member of the council's Legislative Committee and a vice-president of the Illinois Municipal League.

Mayor Maerz is a member of the council's Municipal Problems Commission. Metz is a former president of the Mayors' conference and the council's representative and a vice-president on the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission.

Reading Educators to Meet at Venice School

The 521 Reading Alumni Club of Southern Illinois University will meet Saturday morning at the Venice school on Broadway, where members will inspect the Venice district's comprehensive Language Development Center and observe a demonstration of the latest equipment used in remedial reading programs and testing techniques.

Composed of educators who have completed three sections of the secondary or elementary level Courses 521—"Diagnosis and Treatment of Reading Disabilities," the 521 Reading Alumni Club draws its membership from many school districts in Illinois and Missouri.

Mrs. Sharon Gregg, language development teacher at Venice, is arranging Saturday's agenda for a business meeting at 9:30 a.m. in the district's board of education conference room, followed by the inspection tour and demonstrations. Madison County School Supt. W. R. Wilbur Trimpe has been invited to attend as a special guest.

Mrs. Gregg noted that the university-conducted graduate study course completed by the club's membership provides teachers, administrators or supervisors an opportunity to work with the disabled reader and to determine remedial techniques best suited to the pupil's individual needs. The group's main objectives are to keep abreast of new developments in the field of reading; to visit school systems where new methods of developing reading ability are being employed; and to eventually accomplish research in the field of reading.

Local club members include David Byrd Jr. of Dunbar school, Madison; Miss Diane Nocheff, a Marshall grade school teacher, Earl Stone of the Granite City school district, and Mrs. Gregg.

Membership also is held by educators from Southern Illinois University—Southwestern campus, and school districts in Litchfield, Edwardsville, Wood River, Belleville, Godfrey, Alton, Farmersville, Vandalia, East Alton, Livingston, Greenville, East St. Louis, Jerseyville, Signal Hill, Collinsville, Salem and Trenton in Illinois and from the Florissant and St. Charles areas of Missouri.

Use of the Venice school district's facilities by the club and operation of the Language Development Center for inspection purposes were authorized Monday evening by the Venice board of education at its regular meeting.

Name and address must accompany each letter but will not be revealed if anonymity is requested. Communications of less than 250 words will be given preference. All are subject to condensation and grammatical changes. Those libelous or not in good taste will be rejected or edited.

COMMENDS PASTORS FOR EXERTING LEADERSHIP TO THE EDITOR:

In reference to The Forum in the Press-Record of Oct. 14, issue, there were two persons who found it in their good conscience to comment on the issue in the Press of Oct. 14, pertaining to the proposed housing law.

As for the one, who wrote "Proud of Pastors," I can only thank God that there was a man such as him, for he was the only one at that time in a city of 40,000-plus to come forward and support the clergy. I should have been at his side.

As to the "Local Woman" who objects: I submit the following for the Christian citizens of this august area to ponder. Yes, the pastors are men, but are to be commended; they are the persons singled out to lead and direct their people in the way of Christ.

While it may be true that they do not own the property in which they live in the most legalistic sense, it is also true that they do own as members of the "Church of Christ" — which ever denomination that might be.

Do not these pastors contribute to the church and, in most cases, a greater percentage of their income than any member of the church of Jesus Christ?

Insofar as their domicile and/or taxes are concerned, it is a part of their salary or remuneration for serving Christ and his followers (or professed followers).

Is this woman begrudging her own, or so-called sacrifice, which we Christians are used to believing that we make. Insofar as being subjected to fright, neglect and destruction of their property, does this little old lady ever consider what goes on behind the scenes in this august city? There are rapes, destruction of property, robberies, etc., in this city.

While some rapes are not published, they do happen. These crimes are usually committed by residents of Granite City. I seriously challenge the validity of the statement that most of the ministers live in urban areas and would not be as greatly affected as "inner city" people. These pastors believe in what they profess, and I must say that most of the congregations which confess Jesus Christ as their Savior do not have clergy who can come and go as they please.

I would assume from her comment that she has been present at many of the services and has paid no attention to what was going on. She is correct in only one thing and that is, she is to preach the "word of God."

All things in this worldly world are their business and they transpire in our society is their business.

I also am an active church member, and I pray that every member of my parish who feels as the "Local Woman" does would, with dispatch, request a letter of transfer. Her and her ilk are in need of something that is not Christ seems not to have been able to relate to them.

I have been much too busy about the tasks of life to be polling the neighbors, etc., as to their feelings on the subject. I shall follow my pastor and leave the gossip to the idle.

POLICE INDIFFERENT TO REPORTS BY YOUTHS
To the Editor:

The Granite City police department has little or no concern for the youth of this city. The truth of this statement is evident when considering two separate incidents which occurred over a period of one week.

On Friday, Oct. 4, at the Alton-Granite City football game, approximately 150 young boys (ages 10-12) charged and knocked to the ground my friend and I.

When we reported this to the nearest policeman, we were told "boys will be boys."

On Friday, Oct. 5, a man in a pickup truck was driving recklessly on the highway to see if any damage had been done.

districts. These are interesting, if not very practical, ideas.

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS TRUSTEES

—We favor Timothy W. Swain and Russell Steger, Republicans, and Timothy Hies, Democrat.

A strong case could be made for choosing such officials in a manner other than statewide balloting. However, in the meantime it is necessary for voters to do the selecting.

Screened by alumni, each state usually is composed of U. of I. graduates. An exception this year is Iowa, vice-president of the new Bloomington Daily Pantagraph, a great-grandson of Adlai E. Stevenson I, who was a vice-president of the U. S. He is a graduate of the University of Virginia; his slating reflects a growing feeling that non-alumni could help add perspective and fresh ideas to the board.

Republican nominees are Swain, 58, Peoria lawyer, a trustee since 1955 and university trustee; president, Earl M. Hughes, 61, Woodstock farmer on the board since 1956; and Steger, 42, of suburban Chicago, an honors graduate and all-American football player who leads a consulting firm.

On the basis of age and experience factors, the GOP trio appears to have an edge. However, Hughes was barely retained on the slate this year following accusations of lack of participation; some voters may wish to instead support lives on the basis of his extensive experience in the fields of business and education.

The other Democratic nominees are Mrs. Frances Best Watkins, 69, Chicago, a trustee 18 years until losing two years ago, and Kenney E. Williamson, 69, Peoria insurance executive, also a 1966 loser, who has 19 years of board service and at present is finishing the term of the late Wayne A. Johnston.

City of Madison Meeting With Success In Developing Maers Industrial Park

Establishment of an industrial park is not easy or automatic, but the diligent efforts of Madison city officials to create the Stephen Maers Industrial Park appear to be meeting with resounding success.

The first tenant, Caine Steel Co., expects to begin operations within two weeks at its new $1 million plant. Street, sewer and sewage treatment construction projects are in progress. And agreements have been completed with the Wilbur Waggoner Equipment Rental & Excavating Co. and the Zimring & Sons Tobacco & Candy Co. to occupy two $150,000 warehouse buildings, which are to be built by early 1969.

In addition to providing job opportunities and economic activity of general benefit to this community and region, such facilities have lease arrangements under which the city of Madison will derive income to supplement the revenue from its insufficient property tax base.

Bankroll for the industrial park, named after the city's only mayor and chief proponent of industrial development, is the cash reserve built up from operation of the city-owned Chain of Rocks Bridge.

Competition from a toll-free federal bridge has ended the bridge profits from which municipal operations and improvements were partly financed. Thanks to "reinvestment" in the form of industrial sites in the city, the toll-free bridge is much brighter than when the bridge toll collection ceased.

Outstanding Tribute to 'Curly' Harris, An Outstanding State Representative

Even for someone who has received as many past honors as Lloyd "Curly" Harris, local state legislator retiring after 32 years in office, the Chamber of Commerce testimonial dinner Monday night must have had a great emotional impact.

A Democrat and former House Appropriations chairman was lauded by high officials of both parties and by persons both in and out of governmental service as a man of ability guided by what was best for his constituents in all his actions.

Awards and comments at the dinner made clear the vital part Harris played in creating the Southwestern campus of Southern Illinois University, establishing the Tri-City Regional Police District, supervising state expenditure of billions of dollars, sponsoring over 1300 laws and performing countless other duties less heralded but no less important to the district and state.

In addition to wishes for many happy years of retirement, he was told that his name will live on in the form of an SIU-SW scholarship foundation. It also will have a permanent place in Quad-City and Illinois history and in the hearts and minds of all who have known him.

Community Beautification Award

The Alton Evening Telegraph and Publisher Paul S. Coulemy merit congratulations on the University of Missouri Journalism School community service award presented for articles which led to cleanup of Pride, Inc., and for continued support of the community beautification group. An organization devoted to a more attractive, revitalized community could be of great benefit to many areas, including the Quad-Cities.

The Madison War Council has launched a six-day drive to collect waste paper, scrap iron, tin cans and other metals vital to the continued uninterrupted production of munitions and tools to win the war quickly.

A new car sharing plan to save gasoline and tires is being developed for this area.

A "presidents' day" meeting of the Leech Literary club was held in the home of Mrs. T. W. Kelso, with Mrs. Lee Stevens as hostess. The home was abloom with fall flowers for the luncheon.

'Glorious, Fun-Filled' Report on TV

"Seven Glorious Days—Seven Fun-Filled Nights," by Charles Sopkin. Simon & Schuster. 286 pages. $5.95.

Reviewed by Marvin Rimmerman, faculty member in the Southern Illinois University Department of Radio and Television.

(Review published in the Daily Egyptian, SIU Department of Journalism, Carbondale.)

Television is so integral to our lives that everyone is a television authority who knows what's wrong with the medium.

Here comes another expert, in the guise of an apparently bright 26-year-old Columbia School of Journalism graduate who works as editor for a major New York publishing firm.

Augie Sopkin took the lead from Fred Friendly's "Due to Circumstances Beyond Our Control." Random House, 1967, who urged TV network heads to spend one full day watching simultaneously the three network programs.

Sopkin dedicated himself to watching six New York TV stations for seven consecutive days, beginning April 22, 1967, the diary he kept is his report to the American public on the state of the television product.

The gist of the idea is that during the course of any given program period, a wealth of incongruities will appear as obvious to one observing so many programs at the same time.

How shattering it must be to watch one station's coverage of an entire community being destroyed by a tornado moments before, while on another channel one sees Dick Clark's from each state, which makes the selection of programs extremely important this year. States that have Congressional delegations equally divided between Republicans and Democrats might not receive a vote.

At the present time, Illinois has 12 Democrats and 12 Republicans in Congress. The ratio stays the same, Illinois citizens would have no vote for the highest office in the land.

My vote is too important to waste. I am going to vote for a man whose record in public life shows he is a dedicated, hardworking person of this country, Hubert Humphrey.

COMMITTEEMAN REPLIES TO ELECTION CHARGES

To the Editor:

There is no way John Mangiaracino could have won the Republican precinct committee office in Venice township Precinct One.

There were 38 votes cast, 19 legal ones for Marion Groshong and for Mangiaracino. The election official says there was one spoiled ballot; not true. The voter just didn't vote for him; the ballot was perfect.

After it was decided in court that he did not have the majority, there was no point in counting further. His ballots, however, were mostly handwritten, which is not permitted by law; therefore, they don't count.

He is accusing voters, probably to cover up for the fact that some residents of Madison voted for him.

He was not a qualified candidate for Republican precinct committeeman. He was a registered Democrat, certified and running on the Democratic ticket for committeeman at the same time.

His Democratic supporters signed his petition and were the ones who voted for him on the Republican precinct committee ballot in the same situation.

He says we have Democratic friends. Indeed we do have, and are proud of it. In Venice there are 50 Democrats to each Republican. What help could a Democrat need from a Republican?

There were never 21 names, as Mangiaracino says, but 19. Their signatures are on record. The Press-Record states that he took strong exception to not being admitted as a Republican precinct committeeman without challenger lists serve as such.

He has run for many political offices and the Press-Record has endorsed his opposition.

Nineteen and 21 hardly add up to 38, the official count of ballots in precinct One.

50 YEARS AGO

OCTOBER 24, 1918

Madison county and the rest of the country are still being attacked by millions of Spanish influenza germs. The invading enemy has swept everything before him, and the casualty list is large.

Hundreds of thousands of cases are reported in Army training camps and large cities, with many thousands of deaths. Locally, the situation is being brought under control. But over a thousand cases have been reported here and St. Elizabeth Hospital is overcrowded, making it necessary to establish an emergency hospital at the Masonic Temple for women and children only, operated by Red Cross ladies.

Fifty cases have been treated at the Masonic Temple, with 16 discharged as cured and four dying. One of those who died there Oct. 22 was the mother of three children all hospitalized with influenza; her husband died today at St. Elizabeth.

Walking Beam Furnace Topic by GC Steel Supt.

The design and operation of walking beam continuous slab furnaces were described at Pittsburgh Wednesday afternoon during a regional technical meeting of American Iron and Steel Institute.

A walking beam slab furnace consists of a series of stationary beams which supports the slab and second beams which moves first vertically to lift the slab and to carry it horizontally along the mill line.

George W. Gergeeff, assistant superintendent of the 80-inch hot strip mill at Granite City Steel Co., said a walking beam furnace had "all the advantages of the pusher-type furnace plus some means of overcoming the disadvantages."

Gergeeff said the advantages of the walking beam furnace over the pusher-type are:

- "Elimination of skid marks on the bottom of the slabs, thereby giving us a slab of uniform temperature throughout the length;
- "No change of furnace pile-ups because of slabs not being the same thickness or having straight edges;
- "No change of furnace pile-ups due to scale build-up on the hearth reducing surface contact between slabs;
- "No difficulties in moving different sized slabs through the furnaces;
- "Reduced expense in emptying the furnaces;
- "Reduced skid maintenance since beams are not subjected to heavy forward thrust loads."
